Design: Alessandro Zambelli

Volumi geometrici si intersecano a creare un duplice effetto luminoso. Frontalmente la schermatura del corpo cilindrico rientra a voler svelare il suo interno e disegnare un tenue spicchio di luce. Dal lato opposto, la stessa luce utilizza la parete come schermo riflettente per diffondersi nell'ambiente.

Geometric volumes intersect to create a dual lighting effect. Frontally the shielding of the cylindrical body to draw a faint clove of light. On the opposite side, the same light uses the wall as a reflective screen to spread into the environment.
